CV Tips

Make your CV look good

Your CV should be well-structured, professional, and error-free. Presenting it to the best of your creative abilities will show that you know what you are doing.

Include a career Summary - Recommendation

Summarize your career's highlights in three or four sentences so that if a recruiter is going through your application, they can have this nutshell version to help them understand.

Don't count on the recruiter to read your cover letter

Recruiters are in the business of comparing CVs with CVs. Although it's a good idea to have a polite cover letter.

Conclusion

Adapt your CV to the job you are applying for;

Recruiters expect you to have done the work to tell them why do you think you are the ideal candidate for the job.

Repeat the job's skills requirements in your CV;

It's a good idea to list the set of skills you have that are similar to the job description.
